MET WEDDING CARS

There's a reason so many brides opt for the classics when it comes to their wedding: they'll never go out of style. Embrace the timeless elegance of a strapless number and watch your loved ones shed a tear as you gracefully emerge from either a silver Imperial or a Bentley [above]. That's your 'something old' down.

Jillie strapless ballgown, from £1,170, Wtoo by Watters

Estella top, from £1,245, and Montserrat trousers, from £1,045, both Caroline Castiglione

MCDADÉ'S

You'll want to stay practical to help get up and down those steps, so we'd suggest forgoing the extravagant ballgown on this occasion. Keep it cool in this top-and-trouser combo from Caroline Castiglione - you won't have any trouble flagging down a McDade's bus [above] when you look this darn chic. ## DUMFRIES LIMO COMPANY

A sleek style will always be in vogue for both cars and dresses, and we reckon this Jaguar [above] and Agata Wojtkiewicz are a match made in cool-bride heaven. Is it just us, or does that lace panel look a little like a go-faster stripe? The church, and step on it. www.dumfrieslimo.com

Be Inspiring gown, EPOA, Agata Wojtkiewicz

Camellia dress, £1,953, Justin Alexander Signature

VIEW FROM THE SLOW LANE

Take it back to the swinging '60s by pairing Justin Alexander's chic petal skirt with this beaut blue VW campervan [below]. Laid-back brides won't feel restricted in a knee-length number. Let your free spirit roam loose on the open road with the hippie-worthy vehicle - well, for one day at least.

MET WEDDING CARS

Berta has given the Bardot neckline a modern reimagining with its delicate floral appliqué offering. Let the detail do all the talking by pairing it with a simple yet classy Mercedes-Benz [above and below]. Or, if you want to up the ante, you could always opt for three Mercs...

Ballgown with Bardot neckline and appliquéd bodice (style 20-15), £POA, Berta

VIEW FROM THE SLOW LANE

If you're donning this breathtaking dress, we already know what kind of bride you are: one who doesn't do things by halves. Pay Blue by Enzoani's showstopper due justice by teaming it with this restored 1934 Triumph Gloria [above]. We're particularly keen on matching some berry-red lippy to the car's maroon exterior.

Mai gown with detachable train, from £2,095, Blue by Enzoani

Rapunzel wedding dress (style 1737), around £2,750, Morilee

PREMIER CARRIAGE

Dreaming of a vintage-inspired celebration? Dresses don't come much more charming than this Daalarna design, with a modest lace overlay. Keep your finger firmly on the period button by rocking up to your venue in this cream Imperial Viscount from Premier Carriage [above], just the ticket for any refined, sophisticated bride, adorned with an adorable little ribbon to finish. Downton Abbey eat your heart out – Lady Mary who?

Gown with sweetheart neckline and embellished lace overlay (style RBL 752), £POA, Daalarna

DUMFRIES LIMO COMPANY

A car as extra as this Lincoln Town Car limo [below] demands a dress that isn't afraid to go all out. Morilee has answered our Disney Princess dreams with this Rapunzel style; and, as a bonus, you'll have all the limo's extra legroom so you can easily fit your train inside. Bingo.
